Old Business

- Trails Clean Up – Member Matlon said for the March 18th trail clean-up there will be approximately 8-10 students and 2 advisors. Member Matlon asked how many members from the Green Team will be attending? Approximately 4-6 members. Member Matlon said that we will be meeting at Bee Meadow Park. Member Glawe suggested to take a before and after photo of an area that is cleaned up. B. Pinke said that there is preliminary interest from Morris Hills Club to do a virtual clean up mid-March, April when all the snow is melted. Member Matlon said the clean up will be 3pm – 4:30pm.
- Shred Day Event – Member Fashano said that the Inter-Faith Food Pantry will be bringing a refrigerated truck to the event. Member Fashano said that we should have pre-registration and we will be giving out tote bags. Member Fashano suggested if we should give a “free give away”. Member Fashano said that at the November Shred Day event that the check-in was somewhat difficult. Secretary Kraynak said that trying to check them in on the list and telling them where to drop off the paper etc. it got chaotic. Liaison Ferramosca suggested if we can give a number to people when they pre-register and they could show the number when they enter at the check-in.
- Composting Bins – Member Mian said there will be a interim report for the spring.
